

ALMA

The Australian Livestock Markets Association (ALMA) is the peak national body representing Australia's saleyard and lairage industry.

With close to 80 member yards across Australia, ALMA is recognised by industry and government as the one representative voice that speaks on behalf of the industry. ALMA is the reliable industry voice that addresses key issues that have the potential to impact the saleyard and lairage industry.

ALMA works for the future of saleyards and lairages through:

- Information – ALMA brings our members with us; we share industry issues and developments so all of our members have timely and accurate information about the industry and the association
- Advocacy – ALMA is the industry representative advocating and advising at national, state and regional levels; working with government, regulators and the ag industry to ensure a strong and vibrant future for the saleyard industry
- Public relations – promoting our industry to and engaging with the ag industry, the community and the nation
- Expansion of opportunities – ALMA is always looking for emerging needs and how our industry can seize these opportunities
- Professional development – ALMA facilitates and shares opportunities for knowledge and skills development and fosters an 'always learning always improving' culture in the industry
- Best practice framework – ALMA develops tools and resources for our members to access and use to ensure our industry members are leading the way

Our Member Yards...

In the 2022-2023 financial year
A.L.M.A members transacted
14.3 million
livestock units
with a value in excess of $A4.2 billion

This represents 75%
of the nation's saleyards throughput

Every member yards is eligible to nominate a representative for election to the board at the AGM which is held in July each year with the annual conference and expo. The expo is the perfect opportunity to meet with fellow industry professionals, listen to a great range of guest speakers and check the expo for the latest products available.
